465-X-3-14-.05ER Continuing Qualification for Applicants Holding a License With Limitation.

(1) An individual residential home builder holding a license with limitation, shall be deemed to have satisfied the experience and ability requirements for licensure if such builder

(a) satisfied the requirements of § 465-X-3-.04(4) of these Rules, and

(b) since the date a license was first issued by the Board, has been continuously licensed as a residential home builder or has served as a qualifying representative of a licensed residential home builder, or any combination thereof.

(2) If such an individual later chooses to apply for another license, that individual may rely upon this continuing status as either a licensee or qualifying representative to evidence satisfaction of the experience and ability requirements for licensure, but also must comply with all other licensure requirements.
